

Shaun Beck, PA-C

Orthopedic Urgent Care Provider

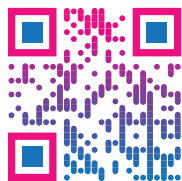

Senior Physician Assistant Shaun Beck is as well-known for his clinical expertise as he is for putting patients at ease. At OrthoIndy's orthopedic urgent care, he takes time to listen to patients' concerns, explain treatment options and guide them toward the choice that feels right for them.

Shaun is a graduate of the charter class of Indiana University's Master of Physician Assistant Studies program and is board-certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA). He also holds two undergraduate degrees from Indiana University: an associate degree in radiography, which he utilized for seven years as a hospital X-ray technologist, and a bachelor's degree in pre-medicine.

Outside of work, Shaun enjoys playing guitar, traveling, attending live music events and spending time with family. His faith is an important part of his life, and he expresses it by using his skills to serve and support others.
